Department of Energy National Science Bowl®
Round by Round Results

At the outset of the Department of Energy National Science Bowl® competition midday Sunday, April 30, 65 teams from 42 states, the District of Columbia and the Virgin Islands were vying to win the nation's largest high-school science contest.

After 10 rounds of round-robin matches, the field was reduced to 32 teams (about 6:00 p.m. ET).

Then, through single-elimination rounds, the field was winnowed further, to 16 teams (about 8:30 p.m. ET) and then to 8 teams (about 9:00 p.m. ET).

The 8 final teams will compete on Monday, May 1, for the DOE National Science Bowl® championship at the Department of Energy headquarters.
